- D. Seven marks the divine measure of time.

Edersheim: Quoted by Baron in Types, Psalms, Prophecies
 The number 7 marks in Scripture the sacred measurement of time.
 The Sabbath is the seventh of days; seven weeks after commencement of the ecclesiastical year is the Feast of Pentecost; the 7th month is more sacred than the rest, its new moon being not only devoted to the Lord like those of the other months, but specially celebrated as the 'Feast of Trumpets,' while three other festivals occur within its course—the Day of Atonement, the Feast of Tabernacles, and its octave.
 Similarly, each 7th year is Sabbatical, and after 7 x 7 comes the Jubilee

7 days in a week

7 Moeds – Appointed seasons

7 moeds in the first 7 months

Power Point: The 7 Days

2000 years - Without Law

Talmud: Tractate Sanhedrin, Folio 97a

The world is to exist 6000 years. In the first 2000 there was desolation. 2000 years the Torah flourished. And the next 2000 years is the Messianic era

Note: he should have come at the beginning of the last 2000 years; the delay is due to our sins.

Brim note: He came on Time.
