Billye Brim shares her new awakening and shaking to plumb the depths and ascend the heights of what the Bible reveals as The Authority of the Believer. She believes that authority over the powers of darkness is available and necessary to fulfill the plans and purposes of God for our individual lives and for these last days. Practical "how-tos" of ruling and reigning in this life are demonstrated.

In this series, taught in a powerful meeting in Houston, Texas, revelation came as to the extreme importance of operating in our place at the right hand of the Father in Jesus Christ in order to give praise to the glory of the Father's grace throughout the upcoming ages. Much is gleaned here from John A. MacMillan's book, Authority of the Believer and Kenneth E. Hagin's The Believer's Authority. You will want the books.
